

Dual-Signal Detector Flow

z-score measures how unusually high Signal A is, in units of locked spread.
An event requires both a high z-score and Signal B collapse at the same time.